

Appropriate vision of leadership can make miracles: Gadkari

■ Business Bureau

WHILE launching the new product of Mother Dairy called Dairy Orange Mawa Barfi here on Saturday, Nitin Gadkari, Union Minister for Road Transport and Highway, MSME, said that the company should further expand its products range. Gadkari said that Mother Dairy should also look forward to make 'Goras Pak', a typical cookies very famous in adjoining Wardha district.

Also present on the occasion were Giriraj Singh, Union Minister for Animal Husbandry, Dairy and Fisheries; Dilip Rath, Chairman of National Dairy Development Board (NDDB); Sangram Choudhary, Managing Director, Mother Dairy; Laxmi Narayan Mishra, Commissioner of Animal Husbandry Maharashtra; Ashish Paturkar, VC of MAFASU Nagpur and Ravindra Thakre, Project Head of Mother Dairy.

Gadkari further added that the Nitin Gadkari, Giriraj Singh and Dilip Rath launching the Orange Mawa Barfi at Vanamati on Saturday.

Orange barfis available in the markets have chemical essence and made of bottle gourd (lavki). However, the barfis made by Mother Dairy is natural with 25 per cent Orange juice.

He expressed his vision and other dream projects. "Appropriate vision of leadership can make miracle," Gadkari said. The Union Ministers launched Orange Mawa Barfi, inaugurated company's exclusive outlet at Nagpur Airport Metro Station and flagged off 20 new Mother Dairy ice cream push carts.

Giriraj Singh the initiative of Mother Dairy was the need of the hour, as it has brought agricultural and life stock on one platform. Dilip Rath briefed about the 2.5 years journey of NDDB.

Sangram Choudhary proposed the vote of thanks.